

BELMOND
CADOGAN HOTEL
LONDON

FACT SHEET

Opening in 2018, Belmond Cadogan Hotel is superbly located on London's prestigious Sloane Street. This historic property, dating from 1887, opens fully renovated and reconceptualised. Its 54 rooms and suites and restaurant will reflect the hotel's rich heritage, creating a stylish retreat for visitors to what is one of the world's most exclusive and luxurious shopping enclaves.

HISTORY

Built in Queen Anne style in 1887, Belmond Cadogan Hotel has long played an integral role in the social history of the Kensington and Chelsea area. Once home to Lillie Langtry where she courted the future King of England, Prince of Wales, Albert Edward, the hotel was also known as Oscar Wilde's London pied-a-terre. The US$48 million project will draw inspiration from the neighbourhood's rich character, offering an elegant meeting place for both international visitors and the local community.
