Centuries over, Charleston's delicate porcelain beauty is still as evident today as it was upon her beginning. She is a perfect blend of centuries-old charm and cultured sophistication. Yielding to traditions without being bound to them. Shaped by the city's two rivers, the Ashley and the Cooper, Charleston bristles with an energy and vibrancy reserved only for the finest cities in the world. Glorious weather shines down, while locals keep time with the shadow of St. Michael's soaring spire. Imagine getting married in the #1 City in the United States, with Belmond Charleston Place as your guide.

THE HOTEL

There is a reason why Belmond Charleston Place is the city's most celebrated hotel—its people. Backed by Belmond's legendary service, an empowered staff forms an omniscient backbone. Every moment is anticipated. Even details seen as trivial by most are addressed with the utmost importance. The end result is an environment of accessible luxury. While bed sheet thread counts are high and afternoon tea is served in English fashion, the service is what sets the hotel apart. Guests return season after season, asking for staff by name and eager to explore this glorious city. Only adding to the hotel's charm and allure.
