CHAMPAGNE

"I drink it when I'm happy and when I'm sad.
Sometimes I drink it when I'm alone.
When I have company I consider it obligatory.
I trifle with it if I'm not hungry and drink it when I am.
Otherwise, I never touch it—unless I'm thirsty."

Celebrating one hundred years In the Pink. In November 1918, at the end of World War 1, the Italian General Manager of the Mount Nelson Hotel at the time, Aldo Renato, celebrated the end of The Great War by decorating the building with a cheerful coat of pink paint.

For Mr Renato, pink was the colour of hope, of a new dawn, and this colour has not changed over the past hundred years. From November 2018 we will celebrate our Pink Centenary with pink events, pink drinks and pink bites, and with all the love, passion and, of course, the hope that the colour pink still evokes.

Our team of mixologist have created two very unique cocktails to celebrate this occasion...
