

Belmond is working hard to ensure that they are ready to welcome back our guests from around the world when the time comes. We continue to closely follow the latest guidance from government and world health authorities and are undertaking a full review of our operations to ensure that our extensive health and safety protocols continue to meet the highest of standards, adhering to all new requirements. We will only reopen our properties when it is safe and legal to do so. Though it is not possible to work in absolutes, the teams are making preparations for the reopening of our properties and, we are keeping it under constant review and our website and reservations teams will continue to carry the latest information on availability by property.
