The Macallan 12 Double Cask

The Macallan brings new Oak from America across thousands of miles to Spain, where casks are crafted and sherry-seasoned before traveling to the distillery in Speyside, where they are filled and matured for at least 12 years. These whiskies are then harmoniously united with those aged in exceptional sherry-seasoned European Oak casks to create the unique flavor profile that is the Macallan 12-year-old Double Cask. Balanced, honey sweetness, citrus and caramel with lingering oak.

The Macallan 15 Fine Oak

The Macallan Fine Oak expressions, which offer the unique characteristic of being “triple cask matured.” These whiskies are aged not only in sherry-seasoned Spanish oak casks, but are also matured in sherry-seasoned American oak casks and bourbon-seasoned American oak casks. The result is an incredibly approachable spirit like the Macallan 15 Years Old. Intense, rich chocolate, with a hint of orange and raisin.

The Macallan 18 Sherry Oak

The Macallan 18 Years Old is the iconic marque of The Macallan’s core range, an expression that has been regarded as the best single malt so often that it is retired from most competitions. The Sherry Oak expressions, for example, are subjected to an age-old maturation process exclusively in 100% Sherry-seasoned oak casks. Full & lingering with rich dried fruits, with spice, clove, orange and wood smoke.

The Macallan Rare Cask

Handpicked from less than 1% of the finest sherry seasoned casks maturing in The Macallan reserves. The Macallan Master Whisky Maker has created an exceptionally rich and complex single malt, which exemplifies the brand’s dedication to the tradition of Sherry Oak aging and natural color. Spices and Raisin are complemented by oak, vanilla and chocolate, ending with light citrus zest.
