A BELMOND HOTEL
PORTOFINO

Welcome to the Splendido Mare

Discover a world of relaxed, carefree sophistication in the heart of Portofino harbour.

Discover Portofino

A destination that radiates international allure while staying true to its roots is a rare find. Portofino, a tiny jewel on the Italian Riviera, achieves the balance with panache

Its Piazzetta echoes with the footsteps of legendary stars, from Ava Gardner to Jackie O, and its harbour gleams with sleek yachts. Yet somehow the gentle atmosphere of a Ligurian fishing village remains. One where the catch of the day is eagerly awaited by every charming trattoria, irresistible focaccia aromas seep out of family-run bakeries, and the locals have a cheery “Buongiorno” for passers-by.

Adding to the unspoilt charm are lush, villa-dotted hillsides tumbling down to pastel, weather-worn houses. Boats jostle on the cobalt sea as dolphins play in the waters beyond. Visitors alight from their yachts to soak up the atmosphere of the harbour and the bustling Piazzetta. Finding time to enjoy a homemade gelato, a pesto Genovese or a coveted Cinque Terre wine. It's here in this idyllic enclave that you'll find the Splendido Mare, perfectly poised by the water's edge.

*“A small village, Portofino,
spreads like a crescent moon
around this calm basin.”
– Guy de Maupassant, 1889*

A Warm Welcome

Set on the iconic Piazzetta in the heart of Portofino, Splendido Mare began life as a charming guesthouse for fishermen and weary travellers. Today it has evolved to become a gathering place for stylish Italians and the international jet set. Its rich personality can be felt through winding corridors, multi-level spaces and hidden terraces. This intimate retreat captures the spirit of the harbour and reflects Portofino's kaleidoscopic views.

Step inside and be enchanted. The decor embraces nautical heritage and artisanal detail. Murano glass lamps, understated fabrics by Loro Piana and Rubelli, and iconic vintage furniture by Gio Ponti and Paolo Buffa create a feeling of timeless sophistication with a hint of dolce vita.

Enjoying a privileged setting, the Mare offers an elegant yet casual base from which to explore the gems of Liguria. Hop aboard our traditional wooden "gozzo" to enjoy the slow pleasures of local life, or dive into the emerald waters of Paraggi, a secluded bay just a short drive away.

A courtesy shuttle invites you to explore our celebrated sister property, Hotel Splendido, set on the hillside overlooking the bay. Take full advantage of their wonderful facilities, from the acclaimed La Terrazza restaurant to the saltwater heated swimming pool. It's an extraordinary way to see both sides of Portofino life.

A Living Legend

Ever since the Roman historian Plinius named it “Portus Delphini”, or Port of the Dolphin, Splendido Mare’s exceptionally central site has been an intrinsic part of Portofino. A charming cluster of houses, it was where visitors could be sure of a warm, unfussy welcome. As the village expanded around a community of Ligurian fishermen, the modest guesthouse became a hub for rest, relaxation and catching up with the news of the day.

By the 19th century, it was the residence of choice for aristocratic English and German visitors. In the 1950s, it witnessed affluent jet setters rub shoulders with legendary stars, from Aristotle Onassis and Maria Callas to Humphrey Bogart and Ava Gardner. All were under the spell of Portofino’s secluded beauty mixed with impeccable style.

The Mare’s journey towards its current incarnation began when the owners, two local brothers, decided to split the property. One half stayed as a hotel and the other was offered for sale. Seeing its potential, Belmond (formerly Orient-Express Hotels) purchased it in 1997.

When Splendido Mare launched a year later, it served as an extension to the celebrated Hotel Splendido on the hillside above Portofino. It gained rapt reviews from the start: bon vivant Michael Winner exhorted, “Go there, you won’t regret it”.

In 2021, following Belmond’s acquisition by luxury group LVMH, the Mare reopened. Shining with a strong and independent new personality, the stylish social hub still resounds with the nautical spirit and relaxed refinement of its roots.

Mid-century antiques capture the essence of the dolce vita, the era when Portofino first drew the world's gaze. Elements such as rope, natural woods and brass reflect a seafaring heritage, while splashes of colour from Portofino's particular palette of amber, olive and coral enliven different rooms.

Knots are essential to nautical life, for centuries used by sailors to make fast their vessels. Our rope knot is a fitting symbol for Splendido Mare, recalling our retreat's seafaring roots and a design language that brings the glorious outside in. The colour, sunburnt green, echoes a hue that decorates many of Portofino's iconic window shutters.
